6. [] - GLC) Called Lee Modesitt, Legislative Assistant to Representative William L. Armstrong (R., Colo.), and told him we had looked into the case of [] and a letter responding to Mr. Armstrong's inquiry would be dispatched early next week. I said I just wanted to let him know the matter was being diligently pursued. He thanked me for my call and in response to some of my comments, said the Congressman might very well want to get a full briefing from us on the case.

7. [] - JGO) Met briefly with Ralph Preston, Staff Assistant, House Appropriations Committee, and scheduled a meeting for [] and myself at Preston's first opportunity after the Defense appropriation bill clears the House to discuss problems arising from actions of the full Committee immediately before the bill went to the floor. [] has been advised.

8. [] - JGO) Delivered the transcripts of the Director's testimony of 26 November 1973 before the Subcommittee on Western Hemisphere, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to Mary McLaughlin, of the Committee staff, for use during the day. Arrangements were made for the transcript to be picked up before close of business.

I talked later to Art Kuhl, of the Committee staff, and advised him the Director has not yet had a chance to review the transcript and requested very careful handling since some material covered in the briefing is extremely sensitive.
